"BDEntertainment is able to captivate, engage and motivate a diverse audience. The sounds and colors are unlike anything you have seen before!"

— John V. Bradford
LifeScan, Inc. a Johnson & Johnson Company

It is exciting, fun and indisputably different. No one else does exactly what we do and offers it as an alternative to traditional event entertainment. Sound originally produced outdoors with many styles of brass horns and a variety of percussion instruments, brought into an arena or ballroom, produce quite a show. Dancers trained to manipulate props and costumed thematically give a "cirque" look to the production. Space is never a problem since the room itself becomes our stage. We leave a lasting impression because we do what has never been done before.

BDEntertainment's Unique Talent Base

BDEntertainment's impressive roster of designers, choreographers and arrangers work hand in hand with your event planner to insure the most impressive and "one of a kind" events because they are experts in staging large scale productions.
